The Democrats Carry New York City and the Solid South

Last Tuesday's election rolled up large Republican majorities all over the the country. With the exception of the Solid South and New York City, the Re-Tuesday's election honesty and a fair publicans carry the Nation. The election in Ohio was quiet, but emphatic. Reallot prevailed and the Republican turns from almost all the precincts in the State show that Robinson's majority will not be less than 20,000. The balance of the State ticket closely follows its leader. "Whoever engages in corrupting the people is a traitor to his country, and should be de-tested by all honest men."—James W. Den-favor of the Republicans. The following are the Republican Congressmen admitted to be elected: Butterworth, first district; Brown, second; Williams, third; Boothman, sixth; Little, seventh; Kennedy, eighth; Cooper, ninth; Romeis tenth; Thompson, eleventh; Pugaley, twelfth; Wickham, fourteenth; Grosvenor, fifteenth; S. D. Taylor, seventeenth; McKinley, eighteenth and E. B. Taylor, Don't you think you made an ass of yourself? Did you hear about New Market? Did Dick McConnaughey say anything about N. M. being fixed?
